

Master of Malt ditches Shipping Charges on orders over £99

Award-winning online spirits retailer Master of Malt is getting rid of the final hurdle for online drinks shoppers this Christmas by completely removing shipping charges for larger orders across Europe.

Starting at £99 for the UK larger orders from masterofmalt.com won't cost a penny to ship this Christmas.

Earlier this year, Master of Malt professed their deep hatred for charging their customers for shipping and began offering free UK shipping on thousands of whiskies and other fine spirits throughout their extensive selection (or £5 off of shipping outside the UK).

Today, the award-winning retailer has announced that as part of their continued effort to eliminate shipping charges, they're offering free shipping on all UK orders over £99 until Christmas. This will make it even less expensive for their customers to prepare for holiday parties, stock up on stocking fillers, pick perfect presents or even choose something special for themselves.

Free shipping extends across Europe on all orders over £199 for customers in Ireland, Belgium, France, Germany, Luxembourg and the Netherlands; £299 for customers in Austria, Denmark, Czech Republic, Italy, Slovakia and Spain; £399 for customers in Estonia, Finland, Hungary, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia and Sweden; and £499 for customers in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Latvia, Lithuania, Montenegro, Romania and Serbia.
